O to be Like Thee - Full of Compassion
John 4:4-42

*O to be like Thee! full of compassion,
Loving, forgiving, tender and kind,
Helping the helpless, cheering the fainting,
Seeking the wand'ring sinners to find.*

Dana Scott is the sister of Rachel Scott, who was one of the students killed at Columbine High School. And one of the points of Miss Scott's message was that we need to be more compassionate toward those who are not like us, such as the social rejects, or physically challenged. Her sister had in the last couple of years become convinced that God wanted her to reach out to these some people. In the end, it was two of these people who took her life.

That message convicted me, and I asked God to show me what I could do in the same area, and how I could communicate that conviction to you today. And He brought to mind the story of the Samaritan woman in John 4.

The story is familiar to most of us, but allow me to recap it just a bit. We are going to be reading portions of it, but I want to just give you a quick overview. Jesus was on his way back to Galilee and felt like He should go through Samaria. When they got to a town called Sychar, the disciples went to find some food. In the meantime, Jesus sits at Jacob's well, and strikes up a conversation with a Samaritan woman. Now in those times, this was not a good deal to most people.

Love, Russ

ELDERS' EDIFICATION & ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

What God Hath Promised

WORDS OF WISDOM

Annie Johnson Flint

1866-1932

Annie's words have an unusual appeal to the human heart and reflect her love for God. She felt what she wrote and out of her suffering she was able to comfort others with the comfort she received from The Comforter. Read more about her and you will be inspired.

*God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.*

*But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

*God hath not promised we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe;
He hath not told us we shall not bear
Many a burden, many a care.*

*But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

*God hath not promised smooth roads and wide,
Swift, easy travel, needing no guide;
Never a mountain rocky and steep,
Never a river turbid and deep.*

*But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

<sup>12</sup> Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.

WORD OF GOD

God is not the author of confusion.
1 Corinthians 14:33.

Does this sound like the product of "the gift and power of God?"

GOD IS NO SUCH IGNORAMUS!
