A Light for Our Path

Let's say you decide to sit down and read the Bible. (Great decision). And as you're reading you see that God wants you to be joyful in every circumstance. Perhaps you read Philipians 4:4 "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!" Or maybe you read 1 Thessalonians 5:18 "give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." Or maybe you were reading one of the many other places in the Word that talk about this. And in that moment you're faced with a decision. How will you view this Word from God? As good advice, or as an authority? As something you can follow when you feel like it? Or as something you need to make the effort to do right now?

One of the things the Spirit-inspired Word does is convict us of the need to change. It lights the path that we are supposed to be on. How blessed we would be if we would step onto that path! Many people struggle with being thankful and joyful even if life is hard. But if you would make the effort to obey this Word I believe your effort would be blessed. You will be more of a blessing to those around you. It is such a delight to spend time with someone who has a positive attitude. Seeing someone with an unshakable belief in God's goodness and His promises is a great encouragement to me. With people like that I suspect at some point they read "Rejoice in the Lord always" and decided that it was more than good advice. Perhaps they said, in their hearts, "This is God's Word, and I need to follow it." And then they were blessed.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

I KNOW THE SHEPHERD

The story is told of a Shakespearean actor who was known everywhere for his one-man shows of readings and recitations from the classics. He would always end his performance with a reading of Psalm 23.

Each night, without exception, as the actor began his recitation "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want"... the crowd would listen attentively. And then, at the conclusion of the psalm, they would rise in thunderous applause in appreciation of the actor's incredible ability to bring the verse to life.

But one night, just before the actor was to offer his customary recital of Psalm 23, a young man from the audience spoke up. "Sir, do you mind if tonight I recite Psalm 23?"

The actor was quite taken aback by this unusual request, but he allowed the young man to come forward and stand front and center on the stage to recite the psalm, knowing that the ability of this unskilled youth would be no match for his own talent.

With a soft voice, the young man began to recite the words of the psalm. When he was finished, there was no applause. There was no standing ovation as on other nights. All that could be heard was the sound of weeping. The audience had been so moved by the young man's recitation that every eye was full of tears.

Amazed by what he had heard, the actor said to the youth, "I don't understand. I have been performing Psalm 23 for years. I have a lifetime of experience and training, but I have never been able to move an audience as you have tonight. Tell me, what is your secret?"

The young man quietly replied, "Well sir, you know the Psalm. I know the Shepherd."

CALL TO WORSHIP

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes:

first to the Jew,
then to the Gentile.

Romans 1:16
