You Win When You Finish

This may sound kind of weird but I never mind officiating at the funeral of a Christian. Now, when the person isn't a Christian that's hard. But when talking about Christians the Word says: "Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." (1 Thesalonians 4:13-14) If someone in "in Christ" when they die there is something very good in their future. If a Christian remains faithful until the end that is a WIN. That is one more soul rejoicing with the angels.

We rejoice when someone obeys the gospel, and rightly so. Heaven rejoices too. We rejoice when some wandering Christian comes back home. And we should. But how much more shall we rejoice when the race is finished and the victory is won? "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day - and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing." (2 Timothy 4:7-8) All who long to see Jesus, who have waited on Him, who are found in Him at the end of their race win the prize.

Since this is the truth I think we should do everything possible to win ourselves. I think we should also do everything we can to help those around us win too. How many contests are there where everyone can win? You can win, I can win, your mailman can win, ALL can win in Christ. All who finish. If you see someone around you struggling in this race I encourage you to help them. Remember always what will happen if we make it to the end. We win . . . everything.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

What does the Bible say about getting along with others?

Isaiah 1:16-17

Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause.

Philippians 4:2-5

I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the Lord. Yes, I ask you also, true companion, help these women, who have labored side by side with me in the gospel together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand;

1 John 4:19-21

We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Romans 12:18

If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

John 13:34

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

Hebrews 12:14

Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

Matthew 6:12-15

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Ephesians 5:21

Submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Philippians 2:4

Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Matthew 5:23-24

So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Galatians 5:13

For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

CALL TO WORSHIP

My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have an advocate with the Father—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

1 John 2:1

SCRIPTURE READING

⁸"Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' ¹⁰In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."
