Lincoln Park Church of Christ

You're Not the Only One

Bring the world to Christ. Teach them to obey all things that Christ commanded. These I think can seem like overwhelming tasks. Sometimes trying to follow these commands with only our own children can feel like an overwhelming task. So isn't it wonderful that we don't have to do these things on our own? The truth is that there are still Christians all over the world who are faithful to God. The truth is that many people are working with all their hearts to bring God glory. Even in these times there are victories every day as more and more people are brought to Christ.

But the image of being surrounded by many Christians all trying to serve God isn't always the way it looks to us. Sometimes it feels like we're trying and no one else is. Sometimes Christians think that if they don't do something for God it won't happen. Sometimes we're tempted to believe that we're very alone. Someday that might be true - and we should serve God anyway, even if we are the only ones. If every other man disagrees with God they are still wrong. Maybe someday all others will be wrong. But just like in Elijah's time that day isn't today. When Elijah was telling God that he was the only one left God said: "Yet I reserve seven thousand in Israel - all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal" (1 Kings 19:18)

So I'm glad Bill Walkup is coming to preach to this church Sunday morning. Around our church in Lincoln Park there are many churches. Churches who love God. And they are filled with ministers who preach the Word. Remember that's true as our brother from Allen Park shares something from the Bible. We aren't the only ones, not even close. As we work to bring God glory we are working with thousands upon thousands of Christians doing the same.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

FORGIVENESS Matthew 6:5-15

"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

This, then, is how you should pray:

*"Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.'*

"For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins."

I have heard this passage of scripture my entire life, beginning with my parents and from my Sunday school teachers, preachers and elders as well. Not that I couldn't understand it and had to be constantly told, but because these people loved me and wanted me to learn how to forgive. My lesson learned? How could I ask my Father in heaven to forgive me, if I couldn't forgive my brother or sister? I rejoice that we have a savior who forgives us unconditionally, regardless of what sin we commit, if we only ask. I pray that I will strive to forgive as Jesus does, especially with my brothers and sisters of Christ's church.

Love,
Chuck

CALL TO WORSHIP

Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is kept safe.

Proverbs 29:25

SCRIPTURE READING

For to us a son is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.
