What are You Willing to Believe?

If I told you something would you believe me? I hope so, I try to be an honest guy. I know in the Word it says "Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor, for we are all members of one body" (Ephesians 4:25). I can't follow that and lie to your face. So if I told you "I took Raeanne to a movie for her birthday" would you believe that? If I told you that Ayla said to me "it's not you, it's me" last week would you believe that? And when would you draw the line? How incredible does the statement need to be before you stop believing me? Hmm . . . maybe if I said I bench pressed 300 pounds that might do it. I wouldn't believe myself if I said that.

I do, however, think we need to be willing to believe incredible statements. Let's say Elijah tells you that once in a great contest with false prophets fire came from heaven to prove that the Lord was God. In fact this fire was so hot it even consumed stone. Let's say Samson tells you that one day he picked up the jawbone of a donkey and with it defeated a thousand men. Let's say Noah tells you that the entire earth was flooded but he survived by floating on top of the floodwaters for months. Are these things incredible? Definitely. Should we believe these things? Absolutely.

It's one thing if I tell you something. It's possible for me to lie. It's possible for me to be mistaken. But when God tells us something it doesn't matter how incredible it is, it's true. God cannot lie and He's never mistaken. So if God sends His voice down from heaven and says about Jesus "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" (Matthew 17:5) then we should believe it. And if God says that His Son would be the sacrifice for our sins, would die on a cross, but would rise again on the third day then we should believe it. Yes, it's incredible for someone to rise from the dead. No, I've never seen anything like that happen. But I believe it. The Bible tells me so.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

The doctor is IN

Do we find ourselves feeling that we may need a therapist? If so, Psalm 37 is for us. David writes as a counselor, providing wise steps to take as we face crises and decisions. Whenever you feel the pressure of competition or compulsion to perform, pause and remember the assurance in this passage. David brings eternal perspective and long-term vision that prevents mistakes in short-term decision.

Psalms 17: 3-9 "Trust in the Lord and do good. Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness. Delight yourself also in the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way. Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; Do not fret-it only causes harm. For evildoers shall be cut off; But those who wait on the Lord, they shall inherit the earth...."

Psalms 46:10 "Be still and know that I am God, I will be exalted in the earth."

The Elders are here to pray for you and listen to your concerns. We strive to be spiritual leaders, through the word of God, helping all who are suffering and grasping for hope that only God can provide. May God bless us all as we journey here on this earth and may our eyes continue to focus on the spiritual realm. What a great day it will be to hear the sound of a great trumpet, as Jesus returns and takes us home!

Love,
Chuck

CALL TO WORSHIP

Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching. They are a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.
