THE JOY OF A CHILD

The three days my children were born were three of the happiest days of my life. What a blessing God has given! "Sons are a heritage from the Lord, children a reward from him" (Psalm 127:3). There's just something about holding a child that brings a smile to your face. Yup, I like having children. Of course, in the Bible you see God speaking about new children in a different way. God wants children too: "Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God - children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God" (John 1:12-13). If you have had a child you know the joy that comes with it. I think God rejoices because of children too. I think He has joy when someone becomes His child.

If you've been attending the Sunday morning sermon series you know exactly what's being talked about. You know how someone becomes a child of God. "You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:26-27). I think as Christians it should be a personal mission of ours to bring God joy. So we need to show people the way to be God's child. We need to be telling people about what Jesus did. We need to encourage them to "believe in his name". Our God has to endure a lot of evil - He sees every sin that happens in this world. These things grieve Him. Don't you want to do something to brighten His day? I think someone becoming God's child would do just that. So as Jesus commands, lets: "go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19)

CALL TO WORSHIP

⁶ Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker; ⁷ for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care. Psalm 95:6-7

SCRIPTURE READING

¹³ All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. ¹⁴ People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:13-16
