Listen to Instruction

What were the lessons that your parents tried to give you growing up? What nuggets of wisdom did they try to pass on to the next generation? Notice I say try. As children we don't always listen. And when we don't listen we tend to learn the hard way. There often comes a time when we say "huh, I guess my parents did know what they were talking about". But who knows what heartaches we could have avoided if we had listened earlier? God knows. So did many of the wise fathers in scripture. One of them told his children: "Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction; pay attention and gain understanding. I give you sound learning, so do not forsake my teaching" (Proverbs 4:1-2).

My prayer for parents everywhere is that they give their children "sound learning". That is, may every parent teach their child the Word of God! And my prayer for children everywhere is that they listen to this sound learning. I personally see no point in learning lessons the hard way. I know some people feel they have to learn that way, and that they can't learn any other way, but I don't believe it. I believe we can learn to listen to and obey the Word of God BEFORE we break God's law and make a mess of our lives. It just takes discipline.

We can't do anything about the mistakes we have already made. But in the future I would encourage you to soak up wisdom. If someone is telling you good advice you should listen to them. You should wisely add to your learning. We get into so much trouble when we think we know better than everyone else. "Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him" (Proverbs 26:12). Have the humility to believe that someone else just might be saying something that's useful to you. And if someone telling you a better way to live have the disciple to put that good way into practice. And then you will be wise. "Listen to advise and accept instruction, and in the end you will be wise" (Proverbs 19:20).

ELDERS' EDIFICATION & ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

Connect With God First

And Moses went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying. "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and all the children of Israel: "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I have bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to me above all people: for the earth is mine. And you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation." Exodus 19:3-6

Have you ever noticed how God introduced the Ten Commandments? Before he spoke His laws to the people in Exodus 20, he took time to remind them of these vital truths:

- The love He had for them.
- The victories He had won for them.
- The future He planned for them.

God spoke about how he intended to bless Israel as His children, and he warned them of the boundaries to keep. Only then did he give them his commandments to obey. Do you see the genius of this sequence?

Leaders touch a heart before they ask for a hand. Before God demands that his people keep his rules, he reminds them of their relationship with him and his blessings. This gave the Israelites all the incentive they needed to follow through on their commitment. What wisdom we can learn from Moses and the relationship he had with God! We can have this same relationship with God if we continually turn to him first in all of our decisions. God knows what we need and has planned such a bright future for each of us, not just in this world but in eternity worshipping at his feet. Connect with God first.

Love, Chuck

CALL TO WORSHIP

Sing to God, sing in praise of his name, extol him who rides on the clouds; rejoice before him—his name is the LORD.

A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling.

Psalm 68:4-5

SCRIPTURE READING

The way of fools seems right to them, but the wise listen to advice.
