Lincoln Park Church of Christ

Church is Family

Five people live in the Wells family home in Riverview. And one dog. These five people are very interconnected. We know most everything that is going on in the lives of all the others. When one hurts the other four give hugs. When one is rejoicing the other four smile. When there is a struggle we pray for that struggle. And when one is missing the others hunt until that person is found. Don't judge . . . it only happened once. Ayla decided to fall asleep in the basement behind a storage container. I still don't know why. But I do know that the rest of us were determined to keep up the girl hunt for as long as was necessary. Our family is important to us.

Of course, we know that our family is more than just those who live in Riverview. In fact, as a Christian person, I would say that our family is more than just those who are closely related to me. I would encourage every Christian to think the same way. We are all part of a wonderful family! "Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers" (Hebrews 2:11). This is an amazing family! When JESUS is in your family that is a win. When Jesus is proud to call you family that's even better. And it's true - if you are faithfully a part of the church. Jesus says "whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother" (Matthew 12:50).

So then, I think that changes the way we think about the people in church. The people in the pews around you are your family. We should do the same things for them that we would do for our children. If they are hurting give them a hug. If they struggle pray with them. If they are happy cheer them on. And if they wander off do whatever is possible to bring them back. That's what you do for family. "Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers" (Galatians 6:10).

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

Precious Lord Take My Hand

This week we have all been touched with how fragile life is and reminded that life is truly a mist. James 4:14 ESV "Yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for little time and then vanishes."

I want to share this poem, one that I'm sure many have read before. The author is Mary Stevenson and she beautifully describes just how close God is to us, as he holds us in His hand.

Footprints in the sand

One night I dreamed ...

I was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.
Sometimes there were two sets of footprints;
other times there were one set of footprints.

This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life,
when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.

So I said to the Lord, "You promised me Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk with me always.
But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life
there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most, you have not been there for me?"

The Lord replied, "The times when you have seen only one set of footprints in the sand, is when I carried you".

Please continue to pray for the families who have lost loved ones recently.

Love, Chuck

CALL TO WORSHIP

...but we rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope.
