There are some roads that the wise do not travel. There is an interesting passage in Proverbs chapter 7 where a father tells about something he saw while looking out his window. He says: "I saw among the simple, I noticed among the young men, a youth who lacked judgment" (Proverbs 7:7). I think the Bible teaches that there are a lot of traps you can fall into when you are young. In this case the trap is a married woman who is interested in the youth. Like Joseph demonstrated, that is a trap you want to stay FAR away from. But this unwise youth took a different approach: "He was going down the street near her corner, walking along in the direction of her house at twilight, as the day was fading, as the dark of night set in" (7:8-9). And at this point you want to reach through the pages and shake this boy. "Where do you think you're going? Don't go that way!" But he does, and he falls into the trap.

Maybe that seems very obvious to you. You KNOW that young man shouldn't have gone that way. Perhaps you saw that trap coming a mile away. If so, I am glad. I'm glad you can see that outside of the right way there are many traps that can catch you and hurt you. I am, however, reminded of people who have said "well, I never thought this would happen to me." I personally know some people who thought they could walk down the same path without getting caught or hurt in any way. We need to be wiser than that! There is ONE right road to be on - the narrow road, following Jesus. Outside of this road there are traps all over the place. And "If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning" (2 Peter 2:20). Did you catch that? Outside of where you should be you can get "entangled." And can you imagine that being "entangled" might make it hard to get back on the right road? I can.

This is one reason why I love the church so much. When you're at a church that teaching truth it is easier to stay on the right road. Here I am surrounded by people who want me to stay on the right road. People are praying that I do. People are nudging me back on that road when I veer off course. I'm at a church that encourages me week after week and that encouragement helps me stay away from being entangled by traps. This week I want to encourage you to ALWAYS be at a church that highlights the right road to be on. Or in other words, ALWAYS be at a church that follows God's Word.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

WORDS OF COMFORT WHEN YOU ARE HURTING

2 Corinthians 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

Matthew 5:4 blessed is those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Psalms 119:50 My comfort in my suffering is this: Your promise preserves my life.

John 16:20 Very truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

John 16:33 I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:37-38 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hebrews 13:5 I will never leave you or forsake you.

Lately, many of our brothers and sisters have been in need of comfort, prayers, visits, and cards of love. This article reminded me of how important it is to care for those who are counting on us.

Love, Chuck

CALL TO WORSHIP

For, "All people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord endures forever." And this is the word that was preached to you.
