A new quarter starts this Sunday and that means the adults have two new classes to choose from on Sunday mornings. Following is a brief description of each so that you can choose the one that best meets your needs.

Deron says: The adult class in the multi-purpose room this winter quarter is called "Thinking How God Thinks - The 4:8 Principle." I am super excited about this very interactive and unique class. We are going to look at a number of passages and ask, "How does God think?" We are also going to ask, "How does God want us to think?" aided by the book "The 4:8 Principle" based on Philippians 4:8. Each week we will do an activity to help us put into practice joy-filled thinking.

The adult class in the auditorium is called "Building Character: Studies in Proverbs." We will be searching through the text of Proverbs to discover more about the kind of people God wants us to be. The text will give us goals and areas in which we can improve. Topics will include: working hard, purity, learning when to speak and when to be silent, pursuing wisdom, gaining humility, and fearing God. A person of noble character, who can find? Hopefully you can find a bunch in this class!

So hopefully Deron and I have taken away your desire to sleep in on Sunday morning! I encourage you to come to class so you can grow in the Word. Even better, tell someone else about class and invite a friend. Everyone can benefit from learning more about the Word.

BE STILL, MY SOUL

Stille, meine Wille, dein Je-sus hilft sie-gen, (Be Still, My Soul)

Written by Katharina Amalia Dorothea von Schlegel
1697-1768

Scriptural inspiration from Psalm 37:7

Be Still, My Soul was the favorite hymn of Eric Liddell, the gold medalist in the 1924 Olympics, who later went to China as a missionary and died in a Japanese prison camp during the second World War.

Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In every change, He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake
To guide the future, as He has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord.
When disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

CALL TO WORSHIP

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

John 15:5,8

SCRIPTURE READING

As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our flesh and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath. But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.

Ephesians 2:1-5
