Song Leader	L. Montgomery	D. Smith
Prayer	Chr. Middleton	D. Wells

I have a neighbor who seems like a nice guy. I don't know him really well, I just talk to him in passing sometimes. I know that he watches his grandkids fairly often to help his children out. I've seen him outside fixing his car, so I think he has those skills. I joked with him "I know who to ask the next time my car has a problem." And he was kind and said "yeah, I can do that." His wife leaves for work about the same time I do and she always returns my "good morning." (I don't give her a good morning with quite the same level of enthusiasm I give the church a good morning - see Proverbs 27:14). So, all things considered, they're nice people. But I also am pretty sure that they don't go to church on Sunday. Nice people, but you probably wouldn't consider them Christian people.

There is a decision to be made here. They seem to be nice people leading moral lives. They have probably lived the way they are living for years. Is "nice people" enough? Should I assume that since they watch their grandchildren they must be okay with God? And if not is there anything that I should do, given the opportunity? If you know your Bible you know the answers to these question. First of all, nice is NOT good enough to please God. Jesus says: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). You must be a Christian to be saved. You have to be in Christ and you must be obedient to God's will. And to answer the second question there is absolutely something I should do. "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28:19-20). I should, for starters, try to encourage my neighbor to be a disciple of Jesus.

Now, the guy didn't seem thrilled when I told him I was a preacher. Perhaps he has no interest in spiritual things. But I could use your prayers. Pray God gives me the courage to take each and every opportunity to share my faith in Jesus. Pray for my neighbor that God may move his heart to desire to study the Bible and find out what it says about salvation. And pray for all in the church that God might send more workers out into the fields. There are people out there who are ready to accept the gospel! All they need is someone to tell them. I pray that someone is you.

ELDERS' EDIFICATION & ENCOURAGEMENT CORNER

SUPER SUMMER WEDNESDAYS

We are inviting ministers from the Detroit area to speak at Lincoln Park for a special summer series each Wednesday evening, 7pm. Our series theme is the "Christian Evidences" Series and will allow each minister to craft an exposition using the titles below.

We are very excited about this summer series. Our Elders and Deacons believe that these 45 minute presentations will enhance the faith journey of the Christians at Lincoln Park. We also trust that God will open the hearts of those involved in Bible studies and help motivate them toward a greater faith.

Schedule is listed below:

July 12 – James Snow, Redford CoC, => Is the Bible from God?

July 19 – Doug Wells, Lincoln Park CoC, => Creation versus Evolution

July 26 – Peter Morphy, Royal Oak CoC, => Creation versus Evolution, Part II

August 2 – Andre' King, Monroe CoC, => Age of the World?

August 9 – Russ Bone, Lincoln Park CoC, => The Dinosaur Dilemma

August 16 – Nate Wolfe, Echo Meadows CoC, => Best Flood Evidences (Local or Universal?)

August 23 – Matthew Dowling, Plymouth CoC, => Problem of Evil, Pain, and Suffering

August 30 – Roger Woods, Walled Lake CoC, => God's Design of the Universe

September 6 - Drew Chapados, Windsor CoC, => Concl: God's Design of Humans

We hope and pray that every Child of God at Lincoln Park will be present for this relevant and inspiring series (format, lecture or lecture/Q and A, or discussion).

In Him, Elders Randy Coss, Chuck Middleton, Louis Montgomery, Russ Bone
